PHOTOGRAPHY JEFF ROBERTS

Paul V. Bonneau, Ray Ray, acrylic on board, 14" x 11"

“The carriage house is an extension of the home’s living space, and so they are both connected with a bridge. The landscaping—patios and a meandering path with stone steps—draws you under that bridge and leads you to the water’s edge. The colors in the artwork are the same shades that you see looking out from the home. It’s a similar viewpoint.”
